Joseph M. Freedman, Atty.

c/o M. Frankenstein

137 South Main St.,

Memphis, Tenn.

Jan 14, 1919. Tuesday.
2.30 P.M.

Dear Heart: —

I do not have not received any mail from you to-day. Shall drop you a few lines now, and if your letter should come later on, I'll answer it with to-morrow's letter. Evidently there is some delay in the mails.

How are things going, dear? To what did you decide to do? I sure am anxious to know.

How are you feeling, honey? Take care of yourself, precious. Everyone, including those at home are

I think I wrote about it in one of my previous letters. Your former Sweet Heart, Rose Goodepl, may be there. She is going to ask her to come.

Didn't know very much to-day dear, except that I love you, so I guess I'll close with all my love and thoughts for you. Love you with all my heart. "That's me all over," Joe.

Expect a big - big - big! fat letter this afternoon or to morrow.

Feeling first rate. Mom was happy to hear from you. Did you write to my Pop? Please do, if you haven't as I was down to the house and Pop was quite anxious about you.

Last night I went to see that show, Redemption with Sadie. I met her with Rose at the Hotel Knickerbocker. Oh, yes, there is some class to her. Didn't enjoy it very much, don't know why.

If all is well, Rose & I are going to see Sue Saturday night.

hope I am not disappointed.

Everlovingly
Your Wife